

THE EAST ASIA CENTER PRESENTS

A TALK BY

JUDITH FARQUHAR

MAX PALEVSKY PROFESSOR OF ANTHROPOLOGY & OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

RISING & RESTING:
BEING AND TIME IN BEIJING'S NEIGHBORHOODS

FROM THE SPEAKER: "I WILL PRESENT A PAPER THAT IS ON ITS WAY INTO PRESS LATER THIS SPRING. IT CONSIDERS THE WAYS IN WHICH ORDINARY CITY-DWELLERS IN CONTEMPORARY BEIJING SHARE EXPLICIT PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE CONDUCT OF LIFE IN TIME. CONSIDERING EVERYDAY ADVICE, POPULAR PUBLIC HEALTH LITERATURE, SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE IN CHINESE MEDICINE, AND PRINCIPLES DRAWN FROM CLASSICAL CHINESE METAPHYSICS, THE ANALYSIS SEEKS A FULLER PICTURE OF EMBODIED AND LIVED CULTURAL FORM IN A VERY MODERN, VERY LITERATE SETTING."

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26

3:00 PM
